ABOUT WORTHY PARK 109 DARK RUM

Rich and delicious, Worthy Park 109 Dark Rum is composed of a blend of our light ester rum aged three years in ex-bourbon casks, and a small amount of an unaged higher ester rum. Worthy Park 109 doesn't hold back on the heat or the flavor. Bottled at a whopping 54.5% alc./vol., it is a bold and unique take on a classic style of Jamaica rum. Perfect for mixing in your top-shelf tiki, tropical, or classic cocktails, this 100% pot-still, dark rum is true in style to its historical Jamaican origins and is produced entirely at the Worthy Park Estate.
